PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

MAY 27, 1998

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed form of proxy are being mailed to stockholders on or about April 15, 1998 in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Aware, Inc. (the "Company") of proxies to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company, to be held at the Renaissance Bedford Hotel, 44 Middlesex Turnpike, Bedford, Massachusetts, at 9:00 A.M. on Wednesday, May 27, 1998, and at any and all adjournments thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). When proxies are returned properly executed, the shares represented will be voted in accordance with the stockholders' directions. Stockholders are encouraged to vote on the matters to be considered. If no choice has been specified by a stockholder, however, the shares covered by any executed proxy will be voted as recommended by management. Any stockholder may revoke his proxy at any time before it has been exercised.

The Board of Directors of the Company has fixed the close of business on Monday, March 30, 1998 as the record date for the determination of the stockholders of the Company entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournment thereof. Only stockholders of record on such date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournment thereof. At the close of business on March 30, 1998, there were issued and outstanding 19,838,982 shares of the Company's Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), entitled to cast 19,838,982 votes.

QUORUM AND TABULATION OF VOTES

The By-Laws of the Company provide that a quorum at the Annual Meeting shall consist of a majority in interest of all stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented by a properly signed and returned proxy will be treated as present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum. In general, votes withheld from any nominee for election as director, abstentions (if applicable) and broker "non-votes" (if applicable) are counted as present or represented for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the Annual Meeting. A "non-vote" occurs when a broker or nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a proposal because the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner with respect to that proposal.

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock properly cast at the Annual Meeting will be necessary to elect each director (Proposal One). Abstentions, votes "withheld" from director-nominees, and broker "non-votes" will not be included in calculating the number of votes cast on such Proposal.

Votes will be tabulated by the Company's transfer agent, Boston EquiServe, L.P. The vote on each matter submitted to stockholders will be tabulated separately.

PROPOSAL ONE

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors has nominated for election as Class II directors John K. Kerr and David Ehreth, each of whom is currently a director of the Company. Each director elected at the Annual Meeting will hold office for a term continuing until the annual meeting held in the third year following the year of his election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

Each of the nominees has agreed to serve if elected, and the Company has no reason to believe that either nominee will be unable to serve. In the event that one or both nominees is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the Annual Meeting, proxies will be voted for such other nominee or nominees as the Board may then designate.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE TWO INDIVIDUALS NAMED ABOVE AS CLASS II DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY.

The Audit Committee reviews the results and scope of the annual audit of the Company's financial statements conducted by the Company's independent accountants, the scope of other services provided by the Company's independent accountants, proposed changes in the Company's financial and accounting standards and principles, and the Company's policies and procedures with respect to its internal accounting, auditing and financial controls. The Audit Committee also makes recommendations to the Board of Directors on the engagement of the independent accountants, as well as other matters which may come before the Audit Committee or at the direction of the Board of Directors. In 1997, the Audit Committee met once and took no action by unanimous written consent.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Company's Compensation Committee is currently composed of Messrs. Kerr and Stafford. Mr. Kerr formerly served as the Company's Assistant Vice President of Marketing from June 1992 to November 1994. Mr. Bender, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, served on the Board of Directors throughout 1997 and participated in the deliberations of the Board of Directors concerning the compensation of the Company's executive officers other than himself. In 1997, no other officer or employee of the Company participated in any such deliberations. No interlocking relationship existed between the Company's Board of Directors or Compensation Committee and the board of directors or compensation committee of any other company in 1997.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

Each director of the Company is reimbursed for expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board of Directors. Directors of the Company are not paid any separate fees for serving as directors. Pursuant to the Company's 1996 Stock Option Plan, at the meeting of the Board of Directors on May 21, 1997, each of Messrs. Stafford and Kerr was automatically granted a non-qualified option to purchase 7,843 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $12.75 per share, the closing price of the Common Stock on the Nasdaq National Market on that date. Each option has a term of six years and vests in twelve equal consecutive quarterly installments, the first of which vested on June 30, 1997. On November 14, 1997, the date of Mr. Ehreth's election to the Board of Directors, the Board voted that, upon the approval of Mr. Ehreth's employer, the Company would grant Mr. Ehreth a nonqualified option to purchase 50,000 shares of Common Stock. Mr. Ehreth's employer approved the receipt of the option by Mr. Ehreth on January 12, 1998, whereupon the Company granted Mr. Ehreth an option to purchase 50,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $10.4375 per share, the closing price of the Common Stock on the Nasdaq National Market on that date. The option has a term of ten years and vests as to 20,000 shares on January 12, 2000 and as to approximately an additional 833 shares at the end of each of the 36 months thereafter.

- (1) Amounts reported in this column represent hypothetical values that may be realized upon exercise of the options immediately prior to the expiration of their term, assuming the specified compounded rates of appreciation of the price of the Common Stock over the term of the options. These numbers are calculated based on rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and do not represent the Company's estimate of future stock price growth. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises and Common Stock holdings are dependent on the timing of such exercise and the future performance of the Common Stock. There can be no assurance that the rates of appreciation assumed in this table can be achieved or that the amounts reflected will be received by the Named Executive Officers. This table does not take into account any appreciation in the price of the Common Stock from the date of grant to the current date. The values shown are net of the option exercise price, but do not include deductions for taxes or other expenses associated with the exercise.

- (2) Represents shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of incentive stock options and nonqualified stock options granted under the 1996 Stock Option Plan.
- (3) In 1997, the Company granted employees options to purchase an aggregate of 897,500 shares of Common Stock under the 1996 Stock Option Plan.
- (4) All options were granted at no less than fair market value as determined by the Compensation Committee on the date of grant.
- (5) The options vest to the extent of 40% of the shares subject to the option on July 1, 1999 and to the extent of approximately an additional 1.67% of the shares subject to the option per month, commencing August 1, 1999, until fully vested.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Mr. Bender entered into an employment agreement with the Company on October 27, 1994. The agreement was amended on December 20, 1996. As amended, the agreement provides that Mr. Bender will serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company for a term expiring December 31, 2002. Under the agreement, the term of Mr. Bender's employment will be extended for up to five one-year periods, the first to commence on January 1, 2003, until either the Company or Mr. Bender gives the other six month's notice of non-renewal. The Company also agreed to use its best efforts to cause Mr. Bender to be elected to the Board of Directors. The agreement provides that Mr. Bender shall receive an annual salary of $200,000 and bonuses at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The Company agreed to pay on Mr. Bender's behalf initiation fees at a golf or country club of up to $40,000 and annual dues up to a maximum of $6,000, as well as the premiums on a term life insurance policy on his life in the principal amount of $1.0 million. Mr. Bender is entitled to participate in the Company's insurance and other employee benefit programs on the same basis as all other employees. Mr. Bender agreed to be bound by the terms of the Company's standard employee agreement concerning inventions, confidentiality and non-competition.

In the event of termination as a result of death or disability, the Company will continue Mr. Bender's compensation and benefits for a period of six months thereafter. The Company may terminate Mr. Bender's employment for cause upon ten days' notice and an opportunity to be heard at a meeting of the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee; for purposes of the agreement, "cause" means negligent acts or omissions that have been or will be the sole or primary cause of material harm to the Company, conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude or conviction of a crime the principal victim of which is the Company. Mr. Bender may terminate his employment with the Company by giving three months' prior written notice to the Company.

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company granted Mr. Bender an incentive option to purchase 230,769 shares of Common Stock, a nonstatutory option to purchase 269,231 shares of Common Stock and a nonstatutory option to purchase 300,000 shares of Common Stock, each at an exercise price of $1.30 per share. The options vested in equal monthly installments over periods of three years and became fully vested in December 1997. Each option expires on the eighth anniversary of the date of grant. If Mr. Bender terminates his employment in 1998, he will forfeit 20% of the portion of these options that is unexercised on the date on which he gives the Company notice of his termination.

CHANGE OF CONTROL PROVISIONS

Messrs. Hunter and Moberg hold certain options that provide that the options will vest in full upon a change of control of the Company. On May 23, 1996, the Company granted Mr. Hunter an option to purchase 264,000 shares of Common Stock, of which 235,326 shares had vested as of December 31, 1997 in accordance with the terms of the option, and an option to purchase 36,000 shares of Common Stock, of which 24,000 shares had vested as of December 31, 1997 in accordance with the terms of the option. On June 10, 1996, the Company granted Mr. Moberg options of purchase an aggregate of 75,000 shares of Common Stock, of which 35,444 shares had vested as of December 31, 1997 in accordance with the terms of the options. COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee established by the Board of Directors is composed of two outside directors, John K. Kerr and John S. Stafford, Jr. The Compensation Committee has general responsibility for the Company's executive compensation policies and practices, including making specific recommendations to the Board concerning compensation for the Company's executive officers. The following report summarizes the Company's executive officer compensation policies for 1997.

Compensation Objectives

The Company's executive compensation programs are generally designed to relate executive compensation to improvements in the Company's financial performance and corresponding increases in stockholder value. Decisions concerning executive compensation are intended to:

- establish incentives that will link executive officer compensation to the Company's stock performance and motivate executives to attain the Company's quarterly and annual financial targets and to promote the Company's long-term financial success; and
- provide a total compensation package that is competitive within the industry and that will assist the Company to attract and retain executives who will contribute to the long-term financial success of the Company.

Executive Compensation

The Company's executive compensation package for 1997 consisted of three principal components: (1) base salary, (2) bonuses and (3) long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options under the Company's stock option plans. The Company's executive officers were also eligible to participate in other employee benefit plans, including health and life insurance plans and a 401(k) retirement plan, on substantially the same terms as other employees who met applicable eligibility criteria, subject to any legal limitations on the amounts that could have been contributed or the benefits that could have been paid under these Company plans.

The Company's executive compensation policy emphasizes stock options in order to align the interests of management with the stockholders' interests in the financial performance of the Company for fiscal quarters, the fiscal year and the longer term. In granting stock options, the Compensation Committee considered in part the value of options held by the executive officers and the extent to which the Compensation Committee believed those options would provide sufficient motivation to the executive officers to achieve the Company's goals. Following the Annual Meeting of Stockholders in 1997, the Compensation Committee granted stock options under the Company's 1996 Stock Option Plan to each of Michael A. Tzannes, David C. Hunter, Richard P. Moberg and Edmund C. Reiter. With the exception of the option granted to Mr. Reiter, the Compensation Committee intended these option awards to supplement the substantial options granted to these individuals in 1996, and accordingly the Compensation Committee granted fewer options in 1997 than in the prior year. At the time of the Annual Meeting, Mr. Reiter held options to purchase the fewest number of shares of any of the executive officers of the Company, and the Compensation Committee granted Mr. Reiter options to purchase a larger number of shares than the other executive officers of the Company in order to bring his overall option package more in line with the options held by the Company's other executive officers. Each of the options granted to these executive officers in 1997 vests as to 40% of the shares subject to the option on July 1, 1999 and the remaining shares vest as to approximately 1.67% of the shares subject to the option per month over the next succeeding 36 months. The Compensation Committee believes that the grant of options that vest over an extended period provides significant incentive for executive officers to continue their efforts on behalf of the Company and to create long-term value for the Company's stockholders.

In general, executive officers' base salaries were the same in 1997 as they were in 1996. However, the Company increased Mr. Moberg's salary for 1997 by approximately 10% in order to recognize his contributions to the improvement of the Company's internal operations. The Company also modified Mr. Reiter's compensation by increasing his base salary and establishing new performance thresholds for his sales bonus.

In 1997, the Company established a bonus plan for the members of the Company's management, including the executive officers of the Company (the "1997 Bonus Plan"). The Company intended the 1997 Bonus Plan to provide additional incentive to management to enhance Company performance. The amounts of the bonuses awarded under the 1997 Bonus Plan were based on subjective measures of the participants' performance during 1997. Each executive officer other than the Chief Executive Officer received a bonus of $10,000 for 1997. In addition, the Company paid Mr. Reiter a sales bonus based on a specified percentage of the amount by which revenues from sales of the Company's compression software products exceeded a pre-defined target.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Consistent with the Company's overall executive officer compensation policy, the Company's approach to the Chief Executive Officer's compensation package in 1997 was to be competitive with other companies in the industry. The Compensation Committee believes that this approach provided additional incentive to Mr. Bender to achieve the Company's performance goals and enhance stockholder value. The Compensation Committee believes that Mr. Bender's base salary, which was unchanged from 1996, and his other benefits were consistent with his position and duration of employment with the Company. In addition, Mr. Bender received a bonus under the 1997 Bonus Plan of $20,000. The amount of Mr. Bender's bonus was based on subjective measures of his performance and was intended primarily to reward Mr. Bender for his efforts during 1997 to complete several significant customer transactions. Unlike the other executive officers of the Company, Mr. Bender did not receive stock options in 1997. The Compensation Committee believes that, as a result of several significant option grants in prior years, Mr. Bender's option package during 1997 was commensurate with his seniority and responsibilities and provided sufficient motivation for Mr. Bender to achieve the Company's performance goals.

Policy Regarding Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, limits the deductibility of compensation in excess of $1.0 million paid to the chief executive officer and the four most highly compensated officers of the Company (other than the chief executive officer) in any year, unless the compensation qualifies as "performance-based compensation." The Compensation Committee's policy with respect to Section 162(m) is to make every reasonable effort to cause compensation to be deductible by the Company while simultaneously providing executive officers of the Company with appropriate rewards for their performance. The aggregate base salaries and bonuses of the Company's executive officers have not historically exceeded, and are not in the foreseeable future expected to exceed, the $1.0 million limit, and options under the Company's 1996 Stock Option Plan are intended to qualify as performance-based compensation.
